

Do You Have Free Will?

Written by Frank Buddenbrock

Prager University's newest video course "Do You Have Free Will?" taught by Frank Pastore (former pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds, a best-selling author and acclaimed theologian) is now available for free registration online. Mr. Pastore asks "Do you have the ability to shape your own destiny? Is there a difference between your mind and your brain? Or is free will just a convenient delusion? Are you really just a product of physical forces beyond your control?"

Mr. Pastore says, "If you are just a brain, you cannot have free will. You would just be a physical machine; a very complex, but programmed computer." A best-selling author, Frank Pastore frames the debate the outcome of which may reshape the way you look at your life. Share this "Do You Have Free Will?" video course with your friends.

About Frank Pastore

Frank Pastore (born August 21, 1957 in Alhambra, California) is a former professional baseball pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds from 1979 until 1985, and for the Minnesota Twins in 1986. He then began a long schooling, earning degrees in business administration, philosophy of religion and ethics, political philosophy, and American government from various universities.

On 5 January 2004 Pastore became the host of The Frank Pastore Show on KKLA 99.5 FM in Los Angeles. It is the largest Christian talk show in the United States.

About Prager University

Do You Have Free Will?

Written by Frank Buddenbrock

Prager University , the brainchild of radio talk show host Dennis Prager , is an entirely new concept in education. Their courses, taught by some of the finest, most original thinkers in the world, are five minutes long, visually stimulating and rich in practical content. Each seeks to enhance the student's understanding and appreciation for the core ideas that support Western Civilization such as freedom, personal responsibility and capitalism.